Assessment and Treatment Associates Mental Health Counselor/CDP	Bellevue, WA April 2007-Present

I conduct chemical dependency and mental health evaluations adults aging in range from seventeen to eighty to determine diagnosis and appropriate level of care based on ASAM placement criteria. Typical clients have pending DUI or illicit drug charges and I work closely with their defense attorneys to provide their evaluations in a timely manner to be presented in municipal, district and superior courts. I conduct individual mental health counseling sessions with adults with a variety of diagnosis such as depression, anxiety, OCD, PTSD and most also have a co-occurring diagnosis for substance abuse or dependence. I conducted group treatment for substance abuse and dependence including treatment planning and providing monthly status reports to court and probation officers. Responsibilities also include maintaining case management of clients and their necessary paperwork as well as training CDPT's to conduct chemical dependency evaluations.
